October 18

November 15

December 20

January 17

February 21

March 21

April 18

May 16

We are a group of parents that are strong advocates for our children with disabilities and help to provide support to each other in areas of special education, collaboration with school, mental health, behavior, autism, severe disability areas as well as technical assistance in special education issues. The meetings are confidential and meet regularly throughout the school year. This group is a parent-led group facilitated by Barb Buffington, Director of Pupil Services. If you do plan to attend, we ask that you RSVP to jhartman@deforestschoools.org in advance. We hope to see you this coming school year!
