The Women's Place & Resource Center (WPRC) is post-crisis non-profit organization that will help women grow and develop spiritually, personally and professionally.

Non-Profit Overview

The Women's Place and Resource Center (WPRC) is a post-crisis nonprofit organization designed to assist women in the process of spiritual, personal, and professional development. Free or income-based assistance is provided to women who come to the center by referral or through an application process. Participants receive services based on current living conditions, educational history, self-made future goals, and overall need.

Mission

The WPRC strives to be a place where women can come post-crisis and receive spiritual, personal and professional development with the intention of improving their life situations.

Vision

The WPRC desires to offer constant support to women in need and to be a place where any woman can find support and encouragement while seeking to improve their quality of life.

Services

The WPRC looks forward to offering a wide array of services free of charge to its participants beginning the fall of 2017. These services include but are not limited to:

- Spiritual counseling
- Career training
- Literacy and math skills training
- Computer skills training
- Health, hygiene, and fitness education
- Cooking classes
- Child rearing and parenting classes
- Financial management skills
- Community connection
- Support groups, book clubs, and social networking

Please consider supporting this new community resource financially.
