

“Life begins on the other side of despair.” Jean Paul Sartre

Answer the following questions as you watch.

1. Psychopathology is defined as the study of:

- a. organic brain disease with clinical measures of abnormal functions
- b. perceptive and cognitive illusions
- c. significant behavioral or psychological impairing an individual's functioning

2. How do we identify those with mental disorders?

- a. the person has significant problems
- b. the person's functioning has become clearly abnormal
- c. the person makes others uncomfortable

3. Why are disorders classified?

- a. for legal reasons
- b. for research
- c. to provide treatment
- d. all of these

4. Thomas Szasz argues what about mental illness:

- a. classify it as a disorder for economic reasons
- b. the concept is a complete myth
- c. classify it as a disorder for legal reasons

5. In 1969, what happened to David Rosenhan when he was admitted to a mental hospital by faking mental illness, but then behaved normally?

- a. his sanity was detected and he was released
- b. nobody detected his sanity; said he was in remission

6. The major types of disorder are: (list)

- a.
- b.
- c.

7. What are several of the common features of anxiety disorders? (list)

- a.
- b.

8. What is phobia?

- a. extreme shaking and desire for freedom

