Legal Restrictions

If there are legal restrictions on one of the parents, the school needs to have a copy of the legal document, which states this restriction. Without the document, the school must regard both parents as having equal rights, and cannot support any restrictions made by either of the parents on the other.

Does the judgment allow/permit both parents to be involved in the child/s school? _____ Yes _____ No

Does the school have, on file, a certified copy of the related judgment? _____ Yes _____ No
