

Policy Type: Results/Interpersonal Effectiveness

Collaborative and Responsible Citizens

Students are productive and collaborative contributors in the workplace and in society. In order to achieve common goals, students will:

- 4.1 Demonstrate self-confidence and self-respect, take responsibility for their own actions as a leader or follower, and give and receive constructive criticism.
- 4.2 Demonstrate a positive work ethic and principled behavior.
- 4.3 Communicate effectively, listen actively to understand the opinions and perspectives of others, and develop respectful and mutually supportive relationships.
- 4.4 Effectively convey ideas, feelings, and beliefs, considering content, appropriate context and delivery.
- 4.5 Understand and practice the rights and responsibilities of contributing members of a just society.
- 4.6 Accept personal responsibility for creating worthy outcomes, quality of life, and social justice.
